Human Rights

As a business of people serving people, respecting human rights is a core part of our mission. We are committed to protecting the human rights of the people we employ at our properties, as well as those employed by the suppliers we do business with.

Our policies prohibit forced labor, human trafficking, recruitment fees., and the use of any Hilton property, product or service in any manner that supports or enables any form of abuse or exploitation.

What are the key human rights risks in the hospitality industry?

SEX TRAFFICKING

Criminals may use hotels to engage in commercial sexual exploitation and forced prostitution
